

Ethiopia, Arabia and the Medieval Red Sea A Gathering

Tuesday 8, March
Aix-en-Provence

Maison Méditerranéenne des Sciences de l'Homme

5 rue du château de l'Horloge
- Salle G. Duby -

Maison méditerranéenne
des sciences de l'homme
USR 3125

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

Introduction

Amélie Chekroun (CNRS, Iremam, ERC HornEast) & Zacharie Mochtari de Pierrepont (University of Liège)

From the Arabian Peninsula to Ethiopia and back: some observations on the genealogies of shaykh Husayn of Bale

Alessandro Gori (University of Copenhagen)

Potential archaeological research priorities in the medieval Red Sea

Timothy Insoll (University of Exeter, Centre for Islamic Archaeology)

The Najahides (5th-6th/11th-12th centuries): An Ethiopian slave dynasty in medieval Yemen

Sobhi Bouderbala (Tunis Faculty of Human and Social Sciences, ERC HornEast)

Rasulid documentation for the History of the Walasma dynasty

Amélie Chekroun (CNRS, Iremam, ERC HornEast)

Through the Looking-Glass. Preliminary remarks on the Hijrat al-Habasha's narratives and the connexions between Arabia and Ethiopia at the dawn of Islam

Julien Loiseau (Aix-Marseille University, Iremam, ERC HornEast)

Ethiopians scholars and their descendants in the narrative construction of Medieval Western Arabia : an assessment (VIIe-IXe/XIIIe-XVe s.)

Zacharie Mochtari de Pierrepont (University of Liège)

Organizers : Zacharie Mochtari de Pierrepont (University of Liège)

Amélie Chekroun (CNRS, Iremam, ERC HornEast)

Maison méditerranéenne
des sciences de l'homme
USR 3125

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission